

2022 IHA Leadership Awards

Overview

Each year, the Iowa Hospital Association honors outstanding people whose achievements have enhanced and brought honor to Iowa hospitals. These awards reflect excellent personal or organizational accomplishments in the Iowa hospital community.

Hospitals and health systems are invited to nominate those who have made noteworthy contributions to health care in Iowa by going above and beyond, ensuring both their hospitals and communities are better because of their passion.

Awards and Descriptions (cont'd)

Excellence in Governance Award

The Excellence in Governance Award was established as a memorial to Ernie Hayes who served as a board member and trustee for 40 years for Henry County Health Center in Mount Pleasant. Mr. Hayes' selfless dedication to service continues to benefit people, hospitals and communities throughout Iowa.

- Must be a member of an Iowa hospital or health system board of directors. Focuses management's attention on the health care needs of the communities served, the resources of the organization and the steps needed to successfully merge this information into a plan for success.
- A diplomat who works in concert with management and medical staff to interface with key public groups (community, business groups, medical groups, legislators) to influence their perceptions and actions taken on behalf of the organization.
- Understands the strategic vision of the organization and the ambassadorial role, and combines the two in organizing and using resources to achieve goals. A leader gains the respect and trust of the board, medical staff and employees.
- Explain why you believe the nominee is deserving of recognition for his or her work as a hospital/health system trustee in Iowa. The nominee's involvement in IHA activities, programs and education, including participation in the IHA Hospital Board Certification Program, will be considered.
